All faculty members are already informed that as per ANU authorities minimum attendance required for permission to write University Examinations is 75 percent. Of which 5 percent can be condoned on medical grounds.

Please inform the same to all your loco-wards and their parents.

Leave applications by students should be submitted in duplicate (one copy for loco-parent and one for office). Loco-parents are requested to write clearly whether they are recommending the grant of leave or not. If necessary loco-parents should talk to the parents. If loco-parent recommends in writing the granting of leave the ATP will grant leave.

All students leaving campus should sign in the Movement Register in Principal's office after handing over the permission letter. After returning also they should sign.

While recommending leave the loco-parents should keep in mind the 75% attendance requirement and make it clear to their wards and parents. The daily attendance is made available through the links pinned in the staff and students groups.

Loco-parents are requested to keep the postal address and phone numbers of their wards and parents and submit a copy of the same, duly signed by the loco-ward and loco-parent to the office AFTER verifying them with the parents. The proforma is enclosed herewith. To be submitted on or before 11-9-2023.

The Government of Andhra Pradesh has ordered that every degree college must go for NAAC accreditation without delay. Accordingly Hon'ble Commissioner for Collegiate Education has instructed all colleges to apply for NAAC accreditation without delay. Hence APRDC will be applying for NAAC 2nd cycle accreditation in 2024-2025.

The AQAR of 2022-2023 and of next year are extremely important in this context. The responsibility on criterion in-charges and NAAC Coordinator and the Principal is all the more this year. Hence all criterion in-charges and the coordinator are requested to double check everything before submission.

As tomorrow i.e.30.4.24 is the last day for submission of AQAR 2022-2023 and as some work is still pending, and as temperature is high today and tomorrow ie 29.4.24 and 30.4.24 college timings will be 9 am to 1 pm and 4 pm to 6 pm .

All Guest Faculty and office staff are requested to assist.

Dr. Nayeem Banu, NAAC Coordinator, is requested to supervise and co-ordinate. The AQAR has to be submitted at least on 30.4.24 .

Thanking you all.

As per the instructions of APSCHE Colleges affiliated to ANU have to plan and complete the Short Term Internships at the end of 4th semester/2nd year from 1-8-2023 to 15-9-2023.

These internships are made mandatory by the authorities in order to enable students to get on the job training/exposure to real life work environment, and skills required for jobs. The authorities are instructing us to give top most priority to real life internships. Virtual internships are only a last resort.

Hence the Course Co-ordinators and faculty of each group are requested to discuss, explore, and plan these internships properly. They are requested to go through the modules given by APSCHE carefully. They are also requested to educate the students about the aims of the internship and its modalities properly by holding class wise meetings in the presence of all faculty.

The Course Co-ordinators are requested to submit the detailed plan for each class signed by ~~the~~ all faculty by 4.00PM of 11-7-2023.
